

Residents General/Culinary Meeting

Tues. Oct. 29/24

Managers: Filippo, Mariela, Jeffrey, Andrea

Residents: 11

Culinary Concerns:

- a) Soup is still only slightly warm, especially for the second sitting.
- b) Calorie Count for the sugar free ice cream will be investigated by Mariela. Calorie Count is 190 Cal. / $\frac{3}{4}$ Cups
- c) Stir fry has been added to the Fall and Winter menu.
- d) The only place that has been shut down is the Dining Room. All other locations and Activities are still available.
- e) The Dining Room will be open on the morning of Thursday, October 31. All meals will be served there from breakfast on at the regular times.
- f) The lamb chops were delicious!
- g) Pizza, chicken fingers, and macaroni and cheese are all on the new menu and will be coming up shortly.

Other Concerns:

- a) The Laundry Room floor is still being left in a messy state. If you drop something, pick it up and put it where it belongs.
- b) The lint traps are still not being cleaned after the machine has been used. Please clean it and put the lint in the garbage.
- c) Paper towel is in the Laundry Room cupboard for use in cleaning up your mess.

Comments:

- a) The train Excursion was excellent and very much appreciated. It was a wonderful time!
- b) The Christmas Bazaar will be held on November 30/24. Andrea will be setting up for it that week. If you can help, let her know.

The winner of the $20 coupon for the hairdresser this month is Paul Vandinther.

Adjournment: 2:40p.m.
